

Action for Impact Team 2022

Amba Johnson

Director of Learning and Prevention, Covenant House California
Oakland, CA | 510.701.3711 | ajohnson@covca.org

Amba Johnson has been working with High Risk and Trafficked Youth for over 20 years. Her work is informed by her experience in the sex industry in her early adult years as well extensive experience as a direct service provider. Amba Johnson, Director of DreamCatcher Youth Services is a subject matter expert, trainer, advocate and consultant for other agencies, police, and community organizations developing their programs preparing as service providers to homeless and trafficked youth.

Bellis Furlin

Youth/Young Adult Consultant, Youth Catalyst Team
Bloomington, IL | 847.975.7113 | bellis@youthcollaboratory.org

Bellis grew to understand several systems are meant to be for the betterment of children's lives but often partially/completely fail them, from her own and her friend's experiences. Eventually, they became a runaway youth, almost completely cutting off their family, for the sake of finding a new life founded in mental health awareness, self-love, self-acceptance and happiness. They are excited to continue improving welfare systems so others can escape toxic or abusive households.

Christa Price

Senior Program Director, True Colors United
New York, NY | 212.461.4401 | christa@truecolorsunited.org

Christa received her MSW from the Silberman School of Social Work at Hunter College community organizing program in 2015. Since then she has been committed to advancing social justice and promoting social reform through macro social work and policy advocacy. At True Colors United, Christa works primarily on integrating technology solutions into our programmatic work. Prior to school she spent two years working in China with the Peace Corps.

EJ Velez

Youth/Young Adult Consultant
Reading, PA | 484.721.1504 | emvelez2004@gmail.com

EJ is a legally blind trans male who at seventeen became homeless. Since then he has finished high school. Currently a sophomore this coming fall 2021 at Kutztown University, EJ is studying to become a social worker and have a minor in Spanish.

Joli Guenther

Executive Director, Wisconsin Association for Homeless & Runaway Services (WAHRS)
Portage, WI | 608.239.5430 | joli@guentherhome.com

Joli Guenther, LCSW, has over 20 years of experience working with Wisconsin agencies and supporting their collaboration in serving youth experiencing homelessness at local, State, and National levels. As the current Executive Director of WAHRS, she directs policy and advocacy efforts improving collaboration and service provision and works directly with FYSB multi-site projects to support accountability, training, program improvements, and collaboration in service provision. Diverse service experience includes tribal reservations, rural areas, and urban projects.

Kelli Foster

Program Manager, Children's Home Society of Florida – Statewide
Pensacola, FL | 850.261.4117 | kelli.foster@chsfl.org

Kelli Foster has over 15 years of experience supporting children and families suffering adversity. She serves with lived experience, becoming a parent at age 15 years old, as a front-line worker, and now in a management capacity. Kelli currently is the Program Manager of Street Outreach Program and Transitional Living Programs where she not only manages but implements new programs and works toward sustainability when there are funding losses.

Kristen Patterson

Shelter Director, New Morning Youth and Family Services, Inc.
Placerville, CA | 925.584.9680 | kristen@newmorningyfs.org

Kristen Patterson is the Shelter Director of a children's shelter in California. She was a CSEC youth and teen mom who was able to spend her career working with at-risk youth. She started her career in Contra Costa County Probation. She is the former president of PFLAG, and currently sits on the Child Abuse Prevention Council, the Commission on Youth and Families, the PFLAG board and the El Dorado County Continuum of Care to address homelessness.

Lisa Miller

Director of Youth Services, Homeless Youth Connection, Inc.
Scottsdale, AZ | 623.810.9628 | lmiller@hycaz.org

Lisa Miller serves as the Director of Youth Services at Homeless Youth Connection. Her professional experience includes over thirty years working in non-profit and behavioral health agency environments. She is currently responsible for overseeing the HYC youth programming, including the Host Family TLP. She holds a master's in Rehabilitation Counseling and independent licensure. Her passion for serving youth and families has spanned throughout her career in leadership roles, creating, developing, and executing vision through collaboration.

Martine Jones

Youth/Young Adult Consultant
Pomona, CA | 626.893.1612 | martinesonge@youthcollaboratory.org

Martine is a former foster youth who attends Cal Poly Pomona and is currently serving as a Foster Youth Voice Representative for the Los Angeles Unified and South Bay district. She is a first-year Youth Catalyst Team -Girls Action Board consultant and is dedicated to the welfare of youth in any capacity. She is doing research on how the structural and embodied cycles of oppression in the foster care system impact Black girls.

Megan Johnson

Program Specialist, National Center for Homeless Education
Browns Summit, NC | 206.226.5454 | mjohnson@serve.org

Megan Johnson is a Program Specialist with the National Center for Homeless Education, providing technical assistance to communities both urban and rural who have been awarded grant funds on behalf of the Youth Homelessness Demonstration Program. Megan is based out of the Seattle area. She has done extensive research on the McKinney Vento Act and worked in the space of homeless education for the past 4 years.

Samantha Gillis

Chief Program Officer, National Runaway Safeline

Chicago, IL | 773.289.1724 | sgillis@1800runaway.org

Sam oversees programs for the National Runaway Safeline. Sam has over a decade of experience serving youth and adult survivors of sexual exploitation and other vulnerable populations via her work with three national crisis hotlines, including extensive experience supporting human trafficking and missing persons investigations. Previously working for NCMEC and the National Human Trafficking Hotline, Sam is passionate about preventing trafficking among runaway and homeless youth.

Zachary Mallory

Youth/Young Adult Consultant

Independence, MO | 816.204.1893 | zachary.mallory@snhu.edu

Zachary Mallory (they/them) is a Kansas City native, whose passion is in mental health and suicide prevention. In their community, they provide services through Trauma-Informed Care and by prioritizing DEI. Zachary shares their experiences with homelessness and housing insecurity, as a queer, non-binary person surviving domestic violence and gun violence. Zachary is dedicated to making sure every single person has their experiences shared to transform systems of care.