

Virtual Training

Understanding and Addressing Implicit Bias in Policy and Practice

February 13, 2024 | 1:00 – 2:30 PM ET

FYSB Family & Youth Services Bureau | Runaway and Homeless Youth Training & Technical Assistance Center

Homelessness impacts youth from different backgrounds at different rates.

Most Minority Groups Make up a Larger Share of the Homeless Population than They Do of the General Population

Race and ethnicity of those experiencing homelessness compared with the general population

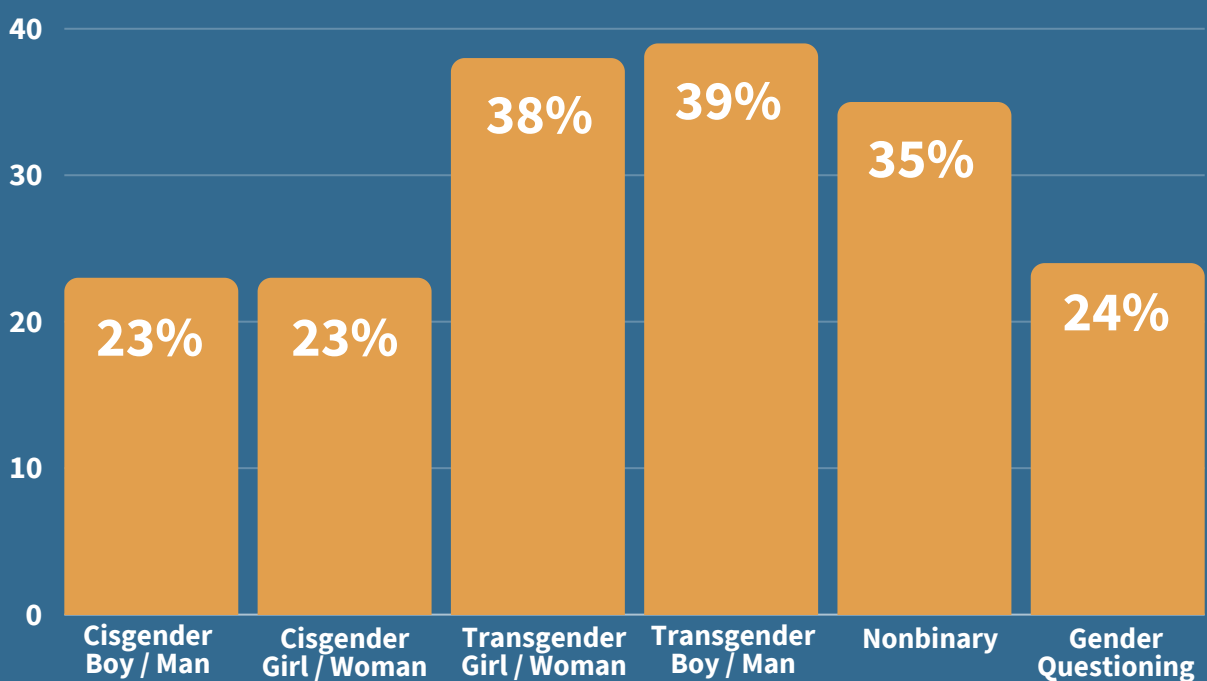

Source: Racial Inequalities in Homelessness, by the Numbers (NAEH, 2020)

The Cumulative Risk of Being Placed in Foster Care in the U.S. by Age 18 by Race Ethnicity

Source: Wildeman & Emanuel, 2014

Rates of Past or Current Housing Instability by Racial / Ethnic Identity

Source: Homelessness and Housing Instability Among LGBTQ Youth (The Trevor Project, 2022)

Attend the Understanding and Addressing Implicit Bias in Policy and Practice virtual training and increase your knowledge of how Implicit Bias might impact the work of RHY providers and strategies that can be used to reduce or avoid those impacts. Register Today!