

2023 RHY National Grantee Training

The Family and Youth Services Bureau's (FYSB) 2023 Runaway and Homeless Youth (RHY) National Grantee Training took place November 28-December 1, 2023 in Seattle, Washington. The training included 964 attendees (902 in-person) across all 10 regions. This infographic highlights the event feedback from 251 overall feedback forms and 3,114 individual session feedback forms.

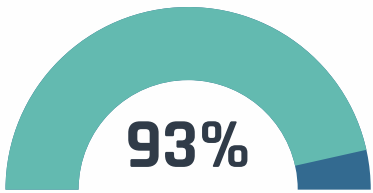

WHO COMPLETED THE OVERALL FEEDBACK FORM?

Four in ten (39%) reported 5 years or less experience working with youth experiencing homelessness.

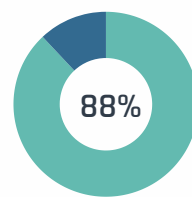

Three out of four (76%) respondents were in leadership roles.

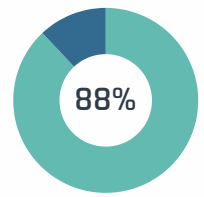

The majority of respondents reported a good or excellent overall experience.

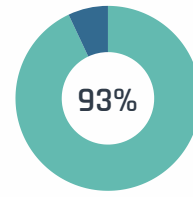

OVERALL EVENT ENGAGEMENT

Enhanced professional development

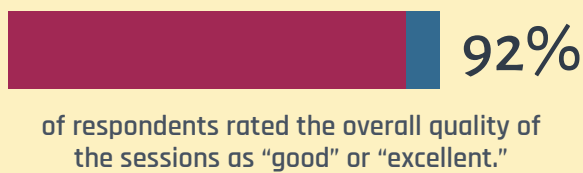

Had networking opportunities

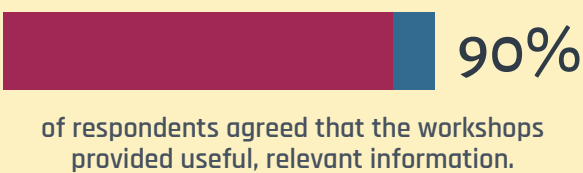

Gained new knowledge or skills

“I am grateful for having had the chance to attend the training as I have a better perspective on delivering services in a manner that will be beneficial and efficient for my current and future clients.”

WORKSHOPS

of respondents rated the overall quality of the sessions as “good” or “excellent.”

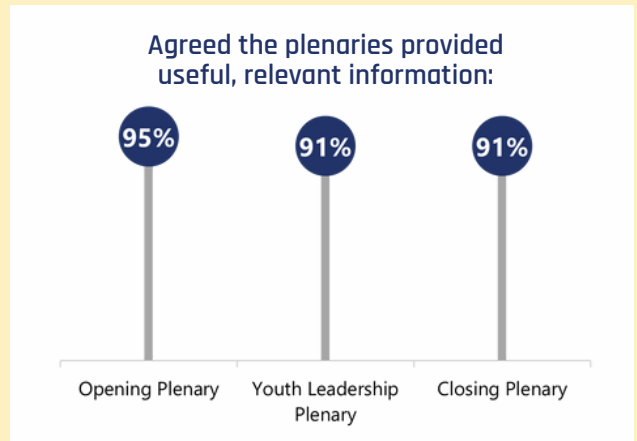

of respondents agreed that the workshops provided useful, relevant information.

“This was incredibly informative and thought provoking! This is the kind of sophisticated approach to professional development that help us think broader and in more innovative ways!”

“I believe a bit more context or examples could have helped me better understand how to apply the concepts.”

PLENARIES

More than 95% of respondents rated the quality of each plenary as “good” or “excellent.”

“I really enjoyed this conference. The keynote speakers were all amazing...As a black leader in my organization, I feel like I learned more tools to help me succeed with the youth we serve.”

“[The] keynote was a good presentation. Did not feel like it fit this audience though. I would have MUCH rather have seen a young QTBIPOC presenter.”

WORKSHOP FEEDBACK

5 workshops received 100% Excellent or Good Quality ratings:

1. Direct Cash Transfers for Youth
2. Behind Happy Faces: Taking Charge of your Mental Health
3. Developing a Harm Reduction Approach
4. RHY-HMIS Data Collection Assistance Session
5. The We Think Twice Campaign: Promoting Youth Leadership

Workshop Spotlight :
Developing a Harm Reduction Approach

“Best session - everyone should hear it”.

“I think this should be a requirement for every agency with RHY grants to attend”.

QUALITY RATINGS BY WORKSHOP TOPICS (%)

